Peguis First Nation TLE Implementation

Call for Applications: TLE Land Selection & Acquisition Advisory Committee

Peguis First Nation TLE Implementation invites applications from members who are interested in being a member of the TLE Land Selection and Acquisition Advisory Committee.

Peguis First Nation TLE Implementation (PFN TLE Implementation) is the lead in implementing the Peguis First Nation Treaty Entitlement Agreement. PFN TLE Implementation is in the process of identifying Crown Land Selections and Land Acquisitions of up to a total amount of 166,794 acres.

The TLE Land Selection and Acquisition Advisory Committee (Committee) will assist in defining a land selection and purchase plan. The Committee will assist in identifying suitable Crown and Private land for selection and acquisition. The Committee will recommend Crown and private land for selection and acquisition to Chief and Council for final approval.

Criteria:

- Seven (7) Committee Members – Peguis members will be appointed from off and on reserve;
- Members will be able to offer to the Committee experience in, but not limited to, one or more of the following areas: Agriculture, Business, Traditional Land Use, Resource Harvesting, Tourism, Real Estate Development, Mining and Forestry;
- Must be willing and able to attend meetings and travel upon request;
- Members must demonstrate a commitment to the goals and objectives of the committee and ensure active participation.

Location: Peguis and Selkirk, Manitoba.

The TLE Land Selection and Acquisition Advisory Committee is a voluntary committee although members will receive an honorarium and travel expenses.

Closing date for applications is November 6, 2009.
