Review Engagement Report

To the Members of PEGUIS FIRST NATION

At the request of PEGUIS FIRST NATION, we have reviewed the Schedule of Remuneration and Expenses - Chief and Councillors of PEGUIS FIRST NATION for the year ended March 31, 2017, calculated pursuant to the requirements of the Indigenous and Northern Affairs Canada and Health Canada's First Nation and Inuit Health 2016-17 Year-end Reporting Handbook.

Our review was made in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements, and accordingly, consisted primarily of enquiry, analytical procedures and discussion related to information supplied to us by the First Nation.

A review does not constitute an audit and, consequently, we do not express an audit opinion on this Schedule of Remuneration and Expenses - Chief and Councillors.

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that this Schedule of Remuneration and Expenses - Chief and Councillors is not, in all material respects, in accordance with the requirements of the Indigenous and Northern Affairs Canada and Health Canada's First Nation and Inuit Health 2016-17 Year-end Reporting Handbook.

1. Definition of Remuneration and Expenses

Peguis First Nation follows the accrual basis of accounting under Public Sector Accounting Standards for this reporting. Remuneration as defined in the First Nation Financial Transparency Act as any salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, fees, honoraria, and dividends and other monetary benefits – other than the reimbursement of expense – and non-monetary benefits.

Council remuneration includes Council Transition Benefits which are paid out upon the end of their term. During the year, Councillor Glennis Sutherland's remuneration accrued a benefit of $13,333, Councillor Wade Sutherland's remuneration accrued a benefit of $13,333, Former Chief Cindy Spence received a cash payment of $33,336 and Councillor Darlene Bird received a $80,000 for benefits previously accrued in past years.

Expenses as defined in the First Nation Financial Transparency Act include the costs of transportation, accommodation, meals, hospitality and incidental expenses. The remuneration and expenses presented above include remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed to the First Nation's chief and each of its councillors, acting in their capacity as such and in any other capacity, including their personal capacity, by the First Nation and by any entity that in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, is required to be consolidated with the First Nation.

The Remuneration and Expenses presented in this schedule includes only amounts paid by Peguis First Nation and does not include any other forms of remuneration and expenses paid to individuals as a result of positions held outside the government reporting entity of Peguis.
